

Neighborhood meeting

Packed buses and trains, littered streets and backyards, rising rents - conversations with our neighbors have shown us this: For many of us here in Neukölln, this is everyday life. We deserve change! For many of us, politics feels far away. Most of us are allowed to vote every few years, but we often don't see any real change. As residents Neukölln, we want to decide together what really matters and make politics different. That's why we're inviting you to come to our Neukölln district meeting! A meeting for everyone in Neukölln. It's about the issues that are important to you and your demands for the election campaign and beyond. Bring your neighbors and friends!
